NEMS Families,

Fall Break is right around the corner! We will be closed for two weeks starting Monday, October 9th. Please also mark your calendar for our next eLearning day on Wednesday, November 1st.

Monday, October 2nd marks the end of the first nine-week grading period. Students will transition to a new diversified arts class starting Tuesday, October 3rd. As a reminder, grades within the core classes are calculated on a semester basis which ends before winter break. However, knowing your child's progress at the midpoint of the semester is important so we can work together on making sure he or she is successful.

Thanks again for your continued support for our school!

Principal, East MS
