Please join us on Tuesday, September 25 from 5-7 p.m. for Noblesville Cares Resource Night. This event will be held at the Hamilton County Fairgrounds. Noblesville Cares Resource Night is designed for any family that would like to know more about community organizations and resources for their family.

Some of the organizations that will be attending are Big Brother Big Sister, Salvation Army, Noblesville Parks Department and Hamilton Professional Counseling. These agencies are able to help out and provide support in a variety of ways, including (but not limited to) clothing, furniture needs, holiday assistance, membership scholarships and therapy. With winter ahead, you'll be able to sign up for a winter coats.

Feel free to bring the whole family, including the kids. We'll provide a separate kids area to keep them entertained while parents visit the different resource booths.

We hope to see you there!
