

Boyd's Bay Weekly News

This Week's Travel Log

Our learning targets for the week are:

- I can listen attentively and participate actively during lessons.
- I can do all my assignments completely, neatly, and well.
- I can recite addition facts; use strategies to solve addition facts; and find sums of addition facts with and without a calculator.
- I can discuss patterns in addition facts.
- I can identify and explain turn-around and doubles facts.
- I can use addition and subtraction to solve "What's My Rule?" problems.
- I can read and write compound words.
- I can determine the cause of in-text events (effects) and my comprehension is increased.
- I can infer or figure out what the author is saying even though it might not be written down using my background knowledge, clues from the text, and illustrations.
- I can use my classroom and personal word walls to correctly spell words I use frequently in my writing.
- I can write a story that is 3-5 sentences long about an experience I have had.
